

Farmers Weekly Quiz

Can you spot 7 common farmland birds?

1) You'll find these in flocks during winter, often in stubble, weedy fields and farm yards

Corn bunting

Wild finch

Tree sparrow

Wren

2) These floor-dwellers make excellent parents

Peacock

Pheasant

Grey Partridge

Turkey

3) Sealed up farm buildings are thought to have a part to play in the decline of this species

Tube Hustler

Watery finch

Tree warbler

House Sparrow

4) Known for smashing the shells of snails to extract their soft bodies; it also pulls earthworms from the soil.

Skylark

Thrush

Barn owl

Starling

Farmers Weekly Quiz

5) These chaps are real Lotharios, and will mate with multiple females every season

Reed Bunting

Red Warbler

Reed Martin

Reed Sparrow

6) Isolated nest boxes on the edge of tall hedges are the best habitats for these birds

Robin

Razor-backed shrike

Tree sparrow

Goldfinch

7) Spotted in winter, the males of the species have distinctive yellow breasts

Parakeet

Hoopoe

Canary

Yellowhammer

Answers

1) Corn Bunting

2) Grey Partridge

3) House Sparrow

4) Thrush

5) Reed Bunting

6) Tree Sparrow

7) Yellowhammer