

Research what countries oranges are grow in?

Using your orange varieties sheet, find out what countries the different varieties of oranges are grown in and using a world map identify the countries, plot them with a small flag, write the countries down.

How many different counties are there?

Colour in the map/ Research what the county's flag looks like.? locate the UK and some of the countries where oranges are grown in.

