

Tomatoes - True or False

Read the following statement's below and decide if they are True or False!

A tomato plant goes to sleep when it is put in a dark place.

The stem of a tomato plant moves water around the plant.

A tomato plant needs light and water to grow.

Germination is when a tomato plant gets a cold.

The fruit of a tomato plant grows under the soil.

A tomato leaf makes food for the plant.

The tomato flower produces seeds.

A tomato plant grows better without its leaves.

What do tomato seeds need to help them grow into healthy plants?

Look at the four statements below. Can you guess which one of the four statements will produce a strong and healthy best tomato plant?

No light, no water.

Light but no water

Water but no light

Water and light

