Lies

When we are bored
My friend and I
Tell
Lies

It's a competition: the prize
Is won by the one
Whose lies
Are the bigger size

We really do:
That's true
But there isn't a prize:
That's Lies

Sergeant Brown's Parrot

Many policeman wear upon their shoulders
Cunning little radios. To pass away the time
They talk about the traffic to them, listen to the news
And it helps them to Keep Down Crime.

But Sergeant Brown, he wears upon his shoulder
A tall green parrot as he's walking up and down
And all the parrot says is "Who's-a-pretty-boy-then?"
"I am," says Sergeant Brown.

I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
