

Land Agent
The Barmer Hall Estate, part of Courteenhall Farms
North Norfolk

Salary: Competitive salary commensurate with experience plus house

A new opportunity has arisen for a bright, forward thinking and commercially astute Land Agent to take responsibility for the running of The Barmer Hall Estate in North Norfolk, as well as supporting the inhouse Courteenhall Farms estate team across the wider estate business.

The role will be based at The Barmer Hall Estate, close to the popular North Norfolk coast. Responsibilities will be wide ranging and include management of the commercial and residential properties with the support of the property and accounts team, overseeing and conducting contract farming agreements, budgeting, and profit share for the Estate, undertaking strategic analysis and thereafter operational management of development/diversification projects to create new revenue streams, and woodland management.

The successful candidate will be MRICS qualified with a good understanding of estate management. You will be self-motivated and driven, with sound financial acumen, and excellent interpersonal skills, able to work principally independently, although part of a wider team, with the competence to act in an ambassadorial role developing and maintaining relationships with key local stakeholders and engaging with the local community.
